Call the original piece that was owned by maure as Maure park. Then call the rest of the park lasalle's sunset coast	LaSallians know how stellar our sunsets are but tourists don't. If we call it like it is then we may get more tourists to our town to enjoy the sunsets. This would be a good step in creating an identity for our town since nothing else is attracting tourists like amherstburg is. But you also need to honour the naming you granted to gil maure so you should call hos land maure park

Historical
Grenadier Park	The first skirmish in the war of 1812 took place when British Grenadiers and Native warriors stood their to fight the advancing Americans. The first Native to loose his life in the war and the first British Grenadier lost their lives at this battle. The Native warrior was only identified as "Unknown. Indian" . Unfortunately no more information was recorded. Calling it Grenadier Park would at least honour their sacrifice.
Voyageur Event Centre	The voyageurs used the Detroit River and Lake St. Clair to travel through to the Great Lakes, delivering furs, mostly from beavers, as it was in fashion at the time. Along the way, the voyageurs interacted with many of the native tribes, the natives befriended and became valuable trade partners with the French settlers
Voyageur Park	give credit to our town's voyageur history
Voyageur Park	The first explorers to come through the area were called "Voyageurs".
Port of Lasalle or Port Lasalle	Or Porte Lasalle for our French heritage- this is a literal dews riot ion and would be enticing to those that might want to visit Lasalle. It denotes a destination. It also keeps our towns name prevalent.
The Rendezvous	Keeps french history without insulting the English and its what we want people to do.
"Rumrunners Alley!"	the place was alive and prosperous then, now welcoming a new prosperity!
The Rum Runners' Coast (Riverfront Heritage & Recreation Park)	There is lots of history and heritage associated with this stretch to waterfront. But by far the most colourful and "fun" period was definitely prohibition, and the role it played in our history. Our first mayor was a well-known rum runner, and the brewery he built, and the house he built next to it is scheduled to become a centrepiece, and probably the administrative centre of the development. The Rum Running theme would also be great for future commercial development of the area.
Rum Runners	Boot legging days. Can be used a an attraction/theme
Rum Runners Riverscape	The house on Front Road was the home of the town's first mayor, Vital Benoit. Benoit was a rum-runner in the Prohibition era.
LaSalle's Rum Runners' Alley	Historical for LaSalle, segway name to other businesses that wish to develop in historical Front Road area.
RumRunners Park	Considering the history of this location and the relationship between the local rum runners and gangs from United States back in prohibition year. It's been told that the area behind the now TD Bank, was a ball diamond where on Sundays after church the local rum runners would meet up with the counterparts from Detroit to settle their accounts.

Bord de l'eau de LaSalle	Waterfront in French, gives acknowledgement to French roots
Descuvere	Old French for discovery. This came to me after learning that this area, including where I live now on the 100 block of superior was deemed in the early 1900 to be a location for a steel mill. But thankfully, because of the depression, and fate, lasalle was "rediscovered". So in many facets, lasalle has been discovered in many ways. And by using the tench version of this word nods to the early French influence to our area settlers as well! I'm a lifelong resident of over 40 yrs!
Lasalle Embarcadère or The landing	It embodies a rich heritage of French Exploration and the landing to embody a site where people may gather.
Le Débarcadère	This name is French for "the landing." It is pronounced day-bar-cah-dare. It invokes the French history of our region and is an alternate word for "dock." The word itself repeats several letters and sounds, making it both pleasing to say and of visual interest when produced on signage.

Anishinaabe Park	Anishinaabe are one of three Indigenous tribes of our area.
LaSalle Waaboo Park	"Waaboo" means "water" in the language used by the Ojibwe people. The women of the tribe are heavily involved in healing, spiritual practices, and tribal governance. In later years, the indigenous populations in Southern Ontario and Michigan had close personal and commercial ties with the French colonists that populated the area on both sides of the Detroit River, and they commuted across the river regularly.
LaSalle Three Fires Heritage Park	LaSalle for the town, three fires for the 3 fires confederacy first nations, and park for the new area is being treated as a beautiful fun filled park.
LaSalle, Kanadario Waterfront & Park	Origin of the name. The word "Ontario" comes from the (Iroquois) - These people called themselves "Haudenosaunee" or "people of the long house". Today's Iroquois/Six Nations people prefer the name Haudenosaunee Confederacy. Word "kanadario", meaning "sparkling" water. The province is well named, since lakes and rivers make up one-fifth of its area.
LaSalle's Kanadario	The word "Ontario" comes from the Iroquois word "kanadario", meaning "sparkling" or "beautiful" water, so the name would translate to "LaSalle Beautiful Water".
Council of "Three Fires" Waterfront	The Anishinaabe, that was comprised of the Ojibwe, Ottawa and Potawatomi tribes called themselves the Council of Three Fires. LaSalle and the shores of the Detroit River was their ancestral homelands. I know there is controversy that the name Maure should be maintained however the indigenous peoples were here first and we should honour them. A request of permission of the current indigenous leaders should be requested.
"Seven Circles"	The traditions and teachings of the Indigenous nations and the interconnection of their "Seven Circles" of (1) Community, (2) Land, (3) Movement, (4) Food, (5) Sleep, (6) Ceremony, (7) Sacred Space is a model for healthy "modern" living.

Nautical Mile
The Nautical Mile	Name has to be simple not corporate or buzzword sounding (ie The Navy Yard v the small town protected walnut grove waterfront coastal experience). We sadly don't have a ton of heritage in this town, in the 90s this stretch was called the Nautical Mile and the name fits and is simple and points to the water. Let's reuse it.
The Nautical Mile	Pretty sure Jimmy Chappus coined that back in the day when he did some work on Front Rd.
Lil LA Nautical Mile	We are lil LA. Warm climate, welcoming visitors. Nautical Mile speaks for itself. I envision shops, restaurants n bars. We could take a few lessons from Burlington, ON. Nice to see some dough being dumped in LaSalle proper instead of Uptown.

Also I chose the words/name with 5 letters in each word...it flows...Keeping inline with the location & an ode to LaSalle's Front Rd. - where the Town has focused this area - the word Plaza has a retail focus & modern edge - so mixed the old with the new. Sounds good & it would LOOK great in PRINT/ads/signs & social media.
